

CvSU-CCAT CODI Mechanism

Reporting and Referral Flow under the CvSU Anti-Gender-Based Sexual Harassment IRR

Based on the CvSU IRR on RA 7877 and RA 11313 • Approved per ADCOM Resolution No. 14, s. 2023

1 What is CODI?

The Committee on Decorum and Investigation (CODI) is the University's internal mechanism for addressing complaints of gender-based sexual harassment. It receives complaints, investigates cases, recommends appropriate action, and helps promote a safe, gender-fair, and respectful learning and working environment.

2 Core Functions of CODI

- Receives complaints on gender-based sexual harassment
- Conducts investigation following prescribed procedures
- Submits findings and recommendations to the University President
- Protects complainants from retaliation
- Ensures confidentiality and gender-sensitive handling of cases
- Leads awareness and preventive discussions within the University

3 Who May Report?

- Students
- Faculty members
- Non-academic personnel
- Parents
- Third-party service providers and suppliers
- Other members of the CvSU community

4 Reporting Channels

Students:

College/Campus GAD Coordinator, Student Council GAD Representative, or Office of Student Affairs and Services (OSAS)

Parents:

Dean or Campus Administrator

Faculty and non-academic personnel:

GADRC Director

Third-party service providers and suppliers:

Office of the Vice President for Administrative and Support Services

Safe Spaces Email:
safespaces.gadrc@cvsu.edu.ph

5 CODI Process Flow

Withdrawal of a complaint does not automatically stop the investigation when there is merit or evidence.

6 Confidentiality and Protection

- All proceedings are handled with strict confidentiality.
- Retaliation against persons involved in a complaint is prohibited.
- Complainants should be treated with dignity, fairness, and sensitivity.
- Records must be handled securely and access should be limited to authorized personnel.

7 Key Structure of the Mechanism

- CODI is headed by a woman.
- Not less than half of its members shall be women.
- It includes representatives from GADRC, HRDO, OSAS, faculty, non-academic personnel, and students.
- Permanent alternates should be designated for continuity.

For campus guidance, you may approach your Campus GAD Coordinator, OSAS, or Campus Administrator.

Promoting safe spaces, accountability, and respect in the CvSU community.

